
OUR HYDROGEN ECOSYSTEM

We have a fully functional Hydrogen Ecosystem which produces green hydrogen daily. Our ecosystem uses solar energy to power an electrolyzer which separates hydrogen and oxygen from water. The hydrogen is stored and used for powering electric vehicles.

Our ecosystem is a demonstration of green hydrogen production that can be scaled for multiple energy needs. These ecosystems produce more than hydrogen, they also produce pure oxygen and (with a fuel cell) pure water, both of which have commercial value.

