

Speaking Engagements:

Due to the high volume of requests for our CEO, Dr. Franklin Chang Díaz to be scheduled to speak at various events, Ad Astra Rocket Company has developed the following system:

Corporate Social Responsibility Raffle:

As part of the company's corporate social responsibility, we offer an opportunity for non-profit or educational organizations to win a free virtual speaking engagement with Dr. Franklin Chang Díaz. This raffle takes place annually on our social media platforms. Rules and regulations on how to apply will be announced at the time of the raffle. For last year's rules and more information please visit our website's social corporate responsibility page.

We will not be accepting early entries or other solicitations regarding this matter.

Virtual Events:

Virtual Speaking Engagements by Dr. Franklin Chang Díaz range anywhere from $5,000 - $10,000 + taxes.

In-Person Events:

In-Person Speaking Engagements by Dr. Franklin Chang Díaz starts at $30,000 USD + Travel, accommodations, and taxes.

Appearances:

If you are interested in booking Dr. Chang Díaz to appear in your project, please contact the communications department at media@adastrarocket.com

Any and all proceeds from these media interactions directly support Ad Astra's projects in advanced propulsion and renewable energy infrastructure.

Filling a form will not guarantee a speaking engagement. Speaking engagements are chosen based on the availability of Dr. Chang Diaz and the amount of potential time taken from his schedule to attend events. Please note that in order to secure your speaking engagement, payment of at least 50% will be required in advance and full payment by the day of the event . No refunds will be given for speaking engagements canceled due to changed circumstances or dissatisfaction.
